COURTESY TO CANDIDATES.

Austin Reville

A nominee or an aspirant for any office is a target for all manner of evil rumors and charges, and it matters little whether they be false or true they go on wings far and near. To be accused of killing one's grandmother or robbing a hen roost is the common heritage of every aspirant for office from President down to School Trustee. To deny them is useless. In fact it only adds to their venom. Mud-throwing has become a science and partisan newspapers are adepts at it. It is curious to note how the papers on one side will riddle a candidate or a platform which the other side is growing red in the face over its efforts to extol. The power of the press is great, no doubt, but it would be far greater if it dealt fairly with opponents. A man is not necessarily a cutthroat because he runs for office, but if he really is one then the press should so state it and bring its facts to prove its assertions. As a rule better party service is rendered by a calm, fair criticism of the platform or the failure of a certain party or candidate to perform its agreements and obligations. If an official has been notoriously derelict of his duties it should be counted against him. If he is all sniveling a month before election and the opposite the day after it should be remembered. If he is incapable of performing the duties of the position to which he aspires it is the part of prudence not to elect him. But all this can be done with courtesy and due respect to his feelings. He need not be called a thief, a liar or a dunce to do all this. An honest statement of the plain facts will be much more powerful. It is this wholesale throwing of mud that is doing much to injure the power of the press and the speakers. The time was when a great paper like the Sacramento Union made and unmade men. Such a paper could not exist now. California has better newspapers now than the old Union was, but its mantle has fallen on none of them. It thundered its opinions with the stern convictions of right every time and people read and heeded. It is different now.

Democratic Ages.

New York Mail and Express

The Democratic party always has a "sage" in stock. Horatio Seymour, the "Sage of Deerfield," was succeeded by Samuel J. Tilden, the "Sage of Greystone." It is a sage's business to be an invalid, to make portentous utterances on public questions, and to be a standing candidate for the Presidency. It is reported that Daniel Manning is to be the next "sage." It is a great party which carries all its wisdom in the head of one frail man.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

I. The Republicans of Nevada, in convention assembled, reaffirm their unflinching loyalty to the principles of the party as embodied in their national platform from Lincoln to Blaine. We believe that liberty is the inalienable right of every man, whatever his race or color, and in the equality of every man before the law, with the unrestricted right of every citizen to cast his vote for whomsoever he chooses, with the assurance that the protection of the Union and free government are now recorded in his very words. The Republican party of Nevada, liberty, equality and protective tariff, have largely contributed in making 60,000,000 of people the best fed, the best clothed, the happiest, the most intelligent and powerful nation in the world. The elevation of the laborer by the abolition of slavery and the utter repudiation of caste and aristocracy by the Republican party has opened to free men and free labor every acre and within the jurisdiction of the United States, and has enabled the tilling millions of the North and of the South to associate in one common brotherhood for the protection of their rights and the advancement of their intellectual and material prosperity.

II. We arraign the Democratic administration of President Cleveland for having tried to keep the pledges on which it came into power. It promised economy and retrenchment, and has been most extravagant in expenditures and appropriations, which, for the current year, largely exceed the abundant revenues of the Government. It promised to reduce the surplus in the Treasury, but reversing the rule of previous administrations, has permitted each surplus to lie idle and accumulate to the injury of the business of the country, and has refused to approve of the action of a large majority of both Houses of Congress directing that such surplus be applied in payment of the interest bearing debt of the country. It promised to care for our brave soldiers and sailors, and has treated with contemptuous words every pension bill against which it could find any sort of technical objection. It promised to protect the person and property of citizens both at home and abroad, and to maintain the dignity and honor of the nation, yet in its refusal to give attention to the claims of our disabled soldiers and sailors of the late war, and its unwillingness to give protection to either person or property, and has permitted our flag to be insulted, without proper protest, almost in sight of our shores, while by hasty and unseemly action it has unnecessarily jeopardized our friendly relations with the Mexican Republic, made our Nation ridiculous in the eyes of the world. Its evasion of civil service reform, to which its leading representatives are pledged, have been bold, insolent and lawless. Among its first acts of administration, it closed the United States Mint in Carson City in violation of the law, to the great detriment of every miner and silver producer in this State in particular, and of the public in general. It has seriously impaired our mail facilities, without shadow of just excuse. It has outraged the express will of Congress, and denied to this people their rights by its unexplained and continued refusal to execute the law for the erection of a Government building.

III. We condemn the Democratic House of Representatives for refusing to make the necessary appropriations for the construction of a suitable navy for the defense of our commerce and the protection of our citizens at home and abroad, and we particularly condemn the majority for making any appropriation for fortifications to protect our extensive seacoast while there was a vast surplus in the Treasury, and thousands of laborers out of employment.

IV. We again declare our constant sympathy with the just and consistent Republican policy and practice of granting out of the nation's abundant generous portions to the disabled veterans of our wars. Whether for the country's defense or for the preservation of the Union. We protest against the removal from official places of worthy and disabled soldiers to make way for partisan civilians and ex-Confederates.

V. In common with all loyal people of the land, we mourn the loss to our country of a heroic dead, and especially that great Republican as well as great soldier and statesman, General Grant. His life will forever be an inspiration to POLITICAL.

In the capital of this State. It has used the entire power of the instrument to destroy the law and pay out silver for Government dues has kept the metal out of circulation, and various devices has reduced the price of silver since the inauguration of President Cleveland more than fifteen per cent. It has closed many of our silver mines and thrown thousands of honest laborers out of employment.

III. We favor a tariff upon the imported products of low-priced foreign labor, so as to protect the interests of American wage workers, and for the development of American industries. We demand in behalf of our mining interests the maintenance of the present tariff on lead, borax, soda and other mineral productions, and in behalf of our wool growing interests a restoration of the wool tariff of 1867, and we denounce the recent attempt of the Democratic majority in the New and House of Representatives to pass the McLean bill reducing the tariff on the products of our mines and placing wool on the free list.

IV. We believe in American soil for American citizens, and are opposed to non-resident aliens becoming landowners. The public domain should be reserved as homesteads for actual settlers, and the alienation of lands to corporations or bodies of land in the hands of corporations or individuals should be discouraged, and in the case of land grants to railroad corporations the conditions of the grants should be strictly enforced, and the lands should be forfeited to the General Government, and held for the benefit of actual settlers.

V. We favor the intelligent organization of labor for such purposes as the promotion of education and for the protection of their interests in all things relating to their welfare and to the industrial welfare of the country, and we favor the enactment of laws to enforce the laws providing for the settlement of controversies between employers and employees by methods of voluntary arbitration, or by the establishment of courts of conciliation, which will avoid the waste, loss and ill feeling resulting from strikes and lock outs, and the usual expenses of litigation.

VI. We denounce the action of the Democratic House of Representatives in its latest attempt in striking from the bill to compensate the citizens of this State for losses sustained in the Indian war of 1860 all claims for supplies furnished for the support of Indian troops, and also for services rendered during that memorable struggle in which the lives of a large number of our most respected citizens were sacrificed.

VII. We denounce the pretenses of the Democratic party of having sympathy for the cause of local self government in Ireland while the Democratic House of Representatives, in Committee of the Whole, repeatedly refused to endorse that principle. In the months of April and June last that body, by Democratic votes, on several occasions rejected a resolution endorsing a free trade bill for Ireland, which is in the following words:

"Resolved that the House of Representatives, in sympathy with the efforts of the Hon. Wm. L. Gladstone and his associates in their efforts to secure a free trade bill for Ireland, and in congratulating the people of that hitherto unhappy country upon the prospect of an early and successful termination of their long and patriotic struggle for the right of local self government," thereby destroying the growth of a liberal spirit throughout Great Britain.

VIII. We commend the efforts of Senator Jones and Congressman Woodburn in obtaining an appropriation of $30,000 for public land surveys in this State, and we commend the action of the Commissioner of the General Land Office in withholding money appropriated for that purpose, and particularly condemn the action of Senator Fair in his attempt to divert from Washington during all the time when appropriations for this State were under consideration by the Senate.

IX. We endorse the action of Senator Jones and Congressman Woodburn in their efforts to suppress polygamy in Utah, and to check the growth of disloyalty to the Government in that Territory, and we fully endorse the principles of the bill introduced for that purpose by Congressman Woodburn. We endorse the action of the Republican Senate in passing in the early days of the last session of Congress a bill to amend the United States Code, and to give effect to the provisions of the act of Congress which has just closed the door of the United States to the immigration of Chinese, and to the surrounding Territories.

X. We are opposed to the further importation of Chinese to this country, or any other foreign laborers, under the contract system, and we favor any plan for the relief of free labor from competition with convict labor which does not impose upon free labor the expense of supporting and maintaining such labor, and we favor the protection of workers in our mines and on our farms, and such other industries, as well as to improve the material and social welfare of our industrial population. We are earnestly opposed to the doctrine of the so-called Anarchists, and we believe in the most perfect protection to each and every individual in the enjoyment of the fruits of his personal efforts to earn an honest livelihood.

XI. The paramount policy used as a circulation medium in any country shall at all times bear a constant ratio to the increasing population of that country. Concurrence of the majority in the enactment of laws to which a half a million can be subjected, among which are robbery of the world to single gold standard as a crime against civilization. It would double the obligation of bonds and all other contracts for the payment of money, which now aggregate in the world to single gold standard as a crime against civilization. It would double the obligation of bonds and all other contracts for the payment of money, which now aggregate in the world to single gold standard as a crime against civilization.

XII. We condemn the Democratic House of Representatives for refusing to make the necessary appropriations for the construction of a suitable navy for the defense of our commerce and the protection of our citizens at home and abroad, and we particularly condemn the majority for making any appropriation for fortifications to protect our extensive seacoast while there was a vast surplus in the Treasury, and thousands of laborers out of employment.

high and honorable manhood, patriotic devotion to our country and loyalty to the principles of Republicanism which he so fittingly represented, and did so much to advance. We shall ever treasure his memory and cherish his deeds.

XIV. It is the duty of this State to maintain free schools, not only in towns and thickly populated districts, but in the rural and sparsely settled districts, and as the education of pupils in the sparsely settled sections of the State is necessarily more expensive per capita than where a large number of pupils can attend the same school, such a division of the school money should be made as will furnish the means of education to all children in the State.

XV. Expenditures beyond the means of private individuals are required for surveys engineering and the construction of reservoirs, canals and other hydraulic works for the purposes of irrigation in this State. We, therefore, favor liberal appropriations by Congress for surveys, both hydrographic and topographical, to ascertain how the waters of this State, which now run to waste in flood time, may be stored and utilized for the purposes of agriculture, to the end that when all the facts are known, suitable aid may be obtained from Congress to enable the Government of the United States to dispose of its lands, and to enable the people to settle upon and occupy the same.

XVII. Resolved, That two years' experience has demonstrated that the present jury law which compels citizens, at their own expense without regard to their pecuniary ability or the losses they may suffer, to appear in person at their usual occupations, break their business engagements, travel long distances and remain from their homes for an uncertain period, and stand upon District Courts, is a measure of unwise economy often productive of great hardship and an unjust imposition of public burden upon private individuals. We therefore demand of the next Legislature such legislation as shall secure to all citizens fair compensation for all the time which they spend and full reimbursement for all expenses which they incur in performing the duties of juryman in the District Court.

XVIII. Resolved, That we point with pride and pleasure to the able and brilliant record made by our Senator in Congress, the Hon. John F. Jones, in his watchful and vigilant care of our interests upon all occasions, as are fully shown by his unanswerable speeches in Congress against the reduction of duties upon foreign manufactures and foreign productions which exposes in a masterly style and in a clear and forcible manner the doctrine of modern free trade. Democracy. His able and exhaustive speeches made upon the reorganization of silver, particularly the last speech in Congress upon that subject, in which he has displayed more strongly his ability to render the obscure and subtle intelligent to the most common mind, thereby replying and upholding the old true honored American dollar of our fathers in its rightful position as part of our circulating medium and purchasing power, and his logical and overwhelming arguments in favor of the passage of the Chinese Restriction and Exclusion bill, and amendments thereto, during the last Congress.

Resolved, That our able Representative in Congress, the Hon. William Woodburn, deserves the united thanks of the people of this State for his constant and watchful care over the true interests of the people of this State, and that we recognize in him an able statesman, a faithful Representative and an honest man, and we say "Well done, thou good and faithful servant" renewed honors await thee.

Resolved, That we are unconditionally in favor of home rule in Nevada and believe that the men who pay her taxes and whose homes and interests are identified with the State should control its politics.

AMENDMENT

We believe it is the duty of the National Government to preserve and protect the great railroad corporations of the country, protecting the people from extortions and unjust discriminations, and we approve the principles of the bill passed by the United States Senate, known as the Cullion bill, and urge our Senators and Representative in Congress to have the same granted upon our national law.

Resolved, That we demand that the next Legislature shall pass laws in accordance with the plan known as the Nebraska plan for the election of United States Senator.

DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM.

First—The Democratic party of the State of Nevada, through its representatives in convention assembled, at Elko, on the 9th day of September, 1886, re-affirming its hearty endorsement of the declaration of principles adopted by the National Democratic party at the city of Chicago in 1868, among which, upon the question of currency and currency, are the following plain statements of Democratic faith and the principles upon which the party applied to the suffering of the people of the several States in the late Presidential campaign:

"We believe in honest money—the gold and silver currency of the constitution and a currency of medium convertible into such money without loss."

We therefore demand that good faith shall be observed with the people by the Democratic Administration by rigidly adhering to the money plank, as it does to every other plank of the Chicago platform.

Second—President Cleveland, in his wise conservative and patriotic administration of our public affairs, both foreign and domestic, challenges our highest admiration, except in following the beaten path of his Republican colleagues and the policy of the Republican party on the silver question, in disregard of the cherished principles of the National Democratic Party.

Third—We demand of the Administration, at Washington, that it shall second the efforts of the Democratic Representatives in Congress to give the people free coinage of silver, notwithstanding the formidable combination existing between the gold rings, National Banks and the National Republican party to maintain the single gold standard.

Fourth—We endorse the policy of applying the surplus in the National Treasury, as fast as it may accumulate, to the payment of the National debt, retiring as rapidly as practicable the National Bank circulation, and the direct issue by the National Government of legal tender Treasury notes, gold and silver coin and coin certificates.

Fifth—We arraign the Republican party before the bar of an enlightened public opinion for its high crime of committing against the public peace and against the best interests of the white laboring classes of both sexes by its inviting and encouraging the influx of Asiatic hordes to our shores under treaty stipulations and under the crazy shibboleth of "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man," until there are planted among the people of the Pacific States and Territories, like so many leeches sucking the life-blood of our substance, 150,000 Chinese coolies.

Sixth—We demand the immediate abrogation of the Burlingame treaty and the total suppression of Chinese immigration to America, and we favor legislation providing for the deportation of all Chinese in the United States, and we recommend the exclusive patronage of white labor and its produce.

Seventh—The introduction by Senator Fair of his Chinese Restriction bill and his success in passing the same deserves the approval of the entire people of the Pacific Coast.

Eighth—A proper regard for the welfare of the workingmen being inseparably connected with the integrity of our institutions, the laboring classes should be protected in their efforts to secure their rights when endangered by aggregated capitalists, or by the importation of foreigners and aliens under contract to perform labor, or by the involuntary or

POLITICAL.

Ninth—We are in favor of liberal wages and free labor. All associations formed for the purpose of developing intelligence, promoting and protecting the interests of the laborer and mechanic, and to enable successfully to maintain and defend their rights by peaceful and efficient means should be encouraged and expressly sanctioned by law, and the Democratic party of Nevada is in favor of the enactment of liberal laws fostering and encouraging the formation of co-operative and protective societies among all classes of laboring men.

Tenth—We approve the action of the Democratic House of Congress in forfeiting and returning to the public domain for homesteads for actual settlers nearly a hundred millions of acres of unearned lands heretofore granted by Republican Congresses to railroad corporations, and we express the Act preventing alien ownership of large tracts of public land in the United States.

Eleventh—We commend the policy of the present Administration in strictly enforcing the tariff laws, the beneficial effect of which is so happily illustrated by the fact that the great wool growing industry of the country receives more protection now by collecting the whole import duties on wool, than it did under the high tariff of 1867 under the practice by Republican officials of letting foreign wool slip through our Customs Houses at less than one-half of its duties.

Twelfth—In behalf of the mining industry of this State and of the entire West, we earnestly recommend to the authorities at Washington the immediate opening and permanent running of the United States Mint at Carson City, to the end that our mines may be relieved from the unnecessary and burdensome expense of shipping their bullion three thousand miles away to the mint at San Francisco, and that the market, and we hereby commend the efforts of Senate. Far to accomplish this result.

Thirteenth—Generous provision, State and county, should be made for the support of public schools. They are established for the benefit of all our people, and should be maintained entirely free from religious or political bias. We believe in thorough and efficient school supervision, and are in favor of such legislation as will best promote the educational interests of our State.

Fourteenth—The depression of our mining interests a prominent factor in our revenue resources necessitates the strictest economy in all branches of our government, both State and county, and we demand of all our public officers that all possible retrenchments be made consistent with the proper discharge of the duties of their several offices.

Fifteenth—In common with the Democracy of the country we express our sympathy with Ireland, in her great struggle for home rule. The friends of liberty throughout the world are deeply interested in the effort which the supporters of Gladstone and Parnell are now making to give the right to govern themselves to the long suffering and greatly wronged Irish people and we sincerely hope that the struggle of Ireland for her just rights shall be crowned with complete success.

Resolved, That in common with the Democracy of the whole country we sincerely lament the loss of the late Vice-President of the United States, Thomas A. Hendricks, the honored and trusted leader of the Democratic cause, and patriotic teachings have become the common heritage of our common country. We also profoundly deplore that during a brief period of time the Nation, and particularly the Democratic party, has suffered the loss of four other eminent citizens in the persons of the gallant leader George B. McClellan, the pure as snow, wise and noble Samuel J. Tilden, the superb hero, General Winfield Scott Hancock, and more recently the demise of the discerning statesman, sage, counsellor and profound political philosopher, Samuel J. Tilden.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

After the address of welcome and the reply of Mr. Powderly, the latter reviewed the work of the Knights of Labor for the past year. He declared that it was the most eventful and trying one in the existence of the order. "If we are guided by the experience of the past," said the speaker, "and act accordingly, we can place the order upon a footing so safe and sound that no assault from its enemies can injure it. If we are not guided by that experience; if we fail to read aright the signs of the times, we fail to properly represent those who send us here." He cited that in one year more than 4,000 new assemblies had been organized. Quite a number had entered the order and at once entered into rash strikes, contrary to the policy of the order. He spoke of the Southwestern Railway strike at great length. He did not approve that strike, but it was only when a threat was made to stop every wheel in the United States that he raised his voice against it. He did that in defense of the order and the country. That the Southwestern strikers had suffered great wrongs, was true, and it was his belief that the railway companies, with a full knowledge of what these grievances were, precipitated the fight themselves, at a time to make it appear to the world that the strike was for an insignificant cause. The eight-hour strike was not successful, because neither workmen nor employers were ready for it. The reduction of the hours of labor was a necessity, and, sooner or later, must be had, but the Knights must not forget that in many places the ten-hour plan has not yet been adopted. Spear said that the proposed reduction of working hours caused millions of dollars worth of work to be left unfinished and undone, because of uncertainty in regard to taking contracts. Never was it more clearly demonstrated that an injury to one was the concern of all than in the movement he mentions. The move was in the right direction, but the time and circumstances are not suitable. A plan should be adopted the same as suggested at the Cleveland meeting, which, by the co-operation of workmen's organizations and manufacturers' associations could be put into practice without strikes or the unsettling of business. He declared that before the short-hour system would be any benefit the relation which the workman bore to the labor-saving machine must undergo a radical change. The machine must become the slave of the man, instead of the man subordinate to the machine. The plan of co-operation through which the workman may control the machine must supersede the present system. Referring to child labor, he said it should be the duty of every assembly to see that all children should attend school. The opposition to child labor was to insure that he should acquire an education to equip him for the duties which would fall upon him as man and citizen. He asked that a special committee on Education be appointed to prepare and recommend a plan for the better education of American youth. He closed by treating of the relation between the Knights and Trades Unions, and recommended co-operation. He declared that he had been unable to reply to one-tenth of the letters addressed to him. He had refrained from replying to criticisms, and while he had been accused of the lack of nerve for so large a movement, still 1,000,000 men and women of nerve and common sense had sustained him in carrying the banner of the order. He said they would act according to his wish if they selected another to fill his place, and asked them to vote without sentiment for the best man in their judgment to guide the order.

The reasons for moving the Department of the Pacific from the Presidio to San Francisco, are stated to be that both mail and telegraph business can be done with greater celerity and correctness, and that in case of emergencies better facilities are always at hand. Besides it is more economical.

VALUE OF MINES.

Practical Hints as to How to Test Their Value.

Denver Tribune-Republican.

The test of merit of a mine is its ability to yield a profit, when properly worked. The test of merit of a prospect is its ability to become a paying mine, when developed. Naturally, it is much more difficult to determine the value of a prospect than to determine the value of a mine. Still, there are rules which experience has taught that are safe to follow, in estimating the chances for a prospect becoming a paying mine. The rules are altogether different in judging a fissure vein prospect, from those which are or should be followed, in judging a contact or bed deposit. The value of the latter depends largely upon development of surrounding claims, value of ore, size and direction which ore shoots are taking. What we commonly call a fissure vein gets no value from its proximity to rich veins. Each vein is a "tub that stands upon its own bottom."

An enormous amount of labor is expended in working assessments on and developing veins which give not the least promise of ever becoming paying mines. It is impossible to generalize rules for judging prospects which are without exceptions, but experience has taught a few which can always be followed with safety, and from which no experienced miner will deviate.

The first rule is that if it is not found on the surface it is useless to dig for it. There never was a greater error than the commonly accepted opinion among prospectors that veins increase in richness as depth is gained, and all that is required to make a mine is to sink to considerable depth. The instances in which richer ore is found at depth than on the surface, are very rare. After shipping up and down a great many hundred prospect holes, and from the British Possessions to the Caribbean Sea, we can say that we have never seen a paying mine which did not have pay ore on the surface. The cases, too, are very rare in which the quantity of ore increased with depth. If, after prospecting the surface of a vein, pay ore is not found, it is a poor investment to continue work upon it.

The fissure vein prospect which has a value is the one which discloses ore of sufficient richness and in sufficient quantity to make a paying mine if it continues until the vein is developed to the point of economical production. The exceptional prospect, with exceptional value, is the one which is rich enough to pay for its own development. Of course there are other things besides those to be considered in determining values. The cost of working a vein, the character of the ore, the location, with reference to wood, water, roads and markets, are all important factors in determining values.

There is one thing that can be set down as a certainty, which is that prospectors almost invariably place a valuation on their claim far in excess of any value they can possibly possess. Nine-tenths of the prospects in the country, judged by the rules here laid down, would be dear at the price of recording a deed. The sooner prospectors learn these things the better will be their chances of finding something saleable and valuable.

PACIFIC COAST PRODUCTS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A Tribune's editorial says: A striking exhibition of the variety of Pacific Coast products is made in a profusely illustrated publication issued by a San Francisco firm. The publication is a remarkable evidence of the fertility of California and the scope of her resources. Fruits of many kinds, cereals, grapes, raisins and wine, wool, salmon, almonds, olives, oranges, each and all form the basis of industries which are growing steadily and fast stretching out to many distant points and accumulating wealth for the projectors and the country as well. The growth of canneries and packing houses alone is surprising. Already dried fruits, raisins and nuts, form an important commerce, while salmon canneries are expanding every year, and yet without showing a tendency to repetition in the world's markets. The immense resources of the Pacific Coast are in fact only now beginning to be at all systematically developed, and the application to them of capital on a large scale and of the most recent treatments, is making it more apparent continually that the most sanguine reports concerning this land of promise have been guilty of exaggeration.

Newspaper Libel Suits.

Amos Currier has brought suit in the Superior Court to recover $10,000 damages from the Post Publishing Company for an alleged libel published on the 30th of last month, headed, "Milton Currier's Death. Friends Refuse a Physician's Assistance and Wait for Spiritual Aid."

The same plaintiff also sues the Examiner Publishing Company to recover $50,000 for publishing an alleged libel on the 1st inst., headed "Believing in Spirits—A Young Man's Death Due to the Fanaticism of His Parents."

It appears from the publications copied in the complaints that the deceased was injured by falling off a car of the Park and Ocean Railroad and taken to the residence of his parents. That a railroad official visited him and offered to call in the services of a physician, which services were refused.

Everybody says that good times are coming, and, as times are controlled for good or for bad very largely by what everybody says, everybody is glad to hear everybody say this.—Chicago News.

SUSANVILLE.

A correspondent of the Advocate writes the annexed of the future outlook for Susanville:

If there is a town in northern California whose prosperity seemed assured that town is Susanville. No town in this portion of the State of equal size is growing faster in a business point of view or transacting that business on a sounder basis. It but remains for those interested to let it grow, to do nothing to retard the growth if they can or will do nothing to promote it. In every place will be found carpenters, men who lack the energy to do anything but growl and find fault and throw cold water upon every attempt at improvement. Such men are liable to do a great deal of mischief. In a small community like this, in order for a quick and vigorous growth an enterprise needs cordial support. Let us then overcome this tendency to distrust every new business venture and when a man starts to build a hotel or sawmill, to develop a mine or clear off a sagebrush ranch let us slap him on the back and predict for him a successful outcome. We have an enterprise in the Lawrence mill which if properly encouraged by our business men will result in greatly increased prosperity to the town and adjacent country. This mill by "driving" logs down Susan River in the Spring can supply the demands of this community for a long time to come. The lumber men, Lawrence and Brunner propose to flume down to the road running south from town where it will be stacked. The water will then be utilized by an eastern company who propose to erect a large mill to be used only as a grist mill and saw and blind factory, but if their plans meet with the support they anticipate a woolen mill will be added. Nothing could be more full of promise to the people of this section than this. Here the wool grown in this section can be manufactured into blankets and other goods and sold through this and adjacent counties without being subjected to freight charges and profits of so many middle men. Here the wool growers from the north and east and in the Fall of the year from the valley counties can find a market for their product, and supplies for their various wants. We have it on good authority that the project will take shape and be pressed to a speedy termination. At no time within the past quarter of a century has the outlook for a business like this been more flattering, with wools and woolens in the European markets undergoing an advance of from 40 to 70 per cent. since April with the heavy shortage in the supply, caused by a heavy falling off in numbers in the flocks, taken in connection with the fact that the United States falls far short of producing sufficient for her own wants. The conditions point inevitably to such a revival in the wool growing and manufacturing industries as must be felt for years to come.

Queer Civil Service.

NEW YORK, October 7.—The World's Washington correspondent says that Senator Gibson has been discussing with the President for three or four days the alleged violation of the civil service order by Federal officers in Louisiana, in taking part in a Congressional convention. Yesterday the President declared that if he found there had been any violation of his order, immediate removals would follow, no matter what may have been the provocation. To-day Senator Gibson called Mr. Cleveland's attention to the conference of Mr. Manning, Lamont and Mahone in New York, and insisted that it was as important to investigate this matter as it was the Jonas & Buck affair in New Orleans. The President said he was not aware that Lamont had gone to New York for purposes other than of a private nature.

Robert Interviewed—The Combination Shift.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—W. S. Hobart, of Hayward and Robert, in a lengthy interview to-day said that he was afraid that the abandoning of the lower levels of the Comstock would have a bad effect there. That it would put a stop to the collecting of future assessments; that there is a great deal of unexplored ground in the upper levels, from which all the bullion had come and is coming, hence the act would have no effect upon the silver value.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Hale & Norcross Company yesterday it was decided to shut down the Combination shaft.

We guess the railroads own the State. We notice that the assessment of the Central Pacific has been reduced from $14,000 to $10,000 in Enreka county. Can't Washoe afford to cut it down from $10,000 to $8,000.

From the number of persons who have declared their intention to vote for Judge Rising for District Judge it will hardly be necessary to count his vote, but just declare it as unanimous.

The Republican party will triumph in the present contest if Republicans are true to themselves.

GRAND OPENING OF THE TEMPLE OF FASHION, Oct. 1st to 6th Inclusive.—Mrs. Hessel respectfully invites the ladies of Reno and vicinity to attend the grand opening of the Temple of Fashion at which time she will have on exhibition the largest and most complete stock of millinery goods ever displayed in this city. She also takes pleasure in announcing to her friends and patrons that she has also secured for the coming season an experienced artist whose ability and refined taste will be a guarantee of perfect satisfaction to all.

HOME RULE.

The Dayton News Reporter says:

"Home rule" is as popular in Nevada as in Ireland. Geo. W. Cassidy, in declining the nomination for Congress by the Democratic party of this State, struck the key-note of the coming campaign when he said: "I am in favor of home rule in Ireland and in Nevada as well." That is the sentiment of the Democratic party in this State, and one of the principles upon which it will make its fight and earn a victory this Fall. To gain the favor of the railroad corporations and other powers that be, the Republican party has allowed them to dictate who shall be the Republican candidate for United States Senator—W. M. Stewart, of California. Daggett, Wren, Powling and other able men who have worked in Republican harness in this State for years are sacrificed for this foreigner in order that the Republican party may capture a few votes which the railroad corporations are supposed to control. Yet that party in convention assembled at Carson City resolved that it is "unalterably in favor of home rule in Nevada." That plank was probably inserted in the hope of catching the few Republican votes in this State which are not owned by the corporations. Carrying water on both shoulders is an old trick of the "Grand Old Party" of this State. It knows not the value of the jewel consistency, principle is sacrificed to policy; honesty made subservient to trickery; faithful servants ignored and political perfidy rewarded—all to gratify the wishes of monopolistic corporations. But there is a day of retribution coming, and it is not far off. The people of this State have tired of the term "rotten borough," and determined to be rid of it. It is the home rule straw that will break the Republican back next November.

A Loyal Democrat.

During a recent visit to Columbus, Ohio, ex-Senator Thurman was entertained by the Thurman Club, 100 strong. In acknowledging the compliment, the venerable statesman used these touching and expressive words: "My young friends: When I was a boy at school, many years ago, one of the text-books which I studied was a Latin one, 'Oenero on Old Age'; and I remember well when I read that beautiful treatise in which the author sets forth in the most impressive manner that consummation in old age which would in some degree be a compensation for the trials of youth, I wondered if that lot would ever be mine. Now, when I look down upon your heads and see your bright faces, and know who you are and what you are, I feel something of regret that the old author never had a Caucasian club to honor and console him in his old age, as you have mine. I thank you, first, for the honor you have done an old man in taking his name for your club, and, second, for the kindness you have manifested towards me by your attendance to-night. My friends, no one can say you are worshipping a rising sun. No; it is a setting sun, low down in the horizon, and fast disappearing for ever. I shall never hold another office, nor shall I ever be a candidate for office; hence it will not be in my power to reward my friends or to punish my foes. You come without hope or fear in that respect, merely to honor an old fellow who from boyhood has been a Democrat, and who until his dying day will be a Democrat, and who is pleased not to be forgotten while he still lives. It is my pride and boast that I have always been a strong and steadfast adherent of the principles of Democracy, and when my dying day comes, as soon it must, and my eyes are turned to behold the sun in the heavens for the last time, it will always be the eyes of a Democrat that will look upon that orb. And when I am under the sod, and some one stumbles over my grave, there he will find the epitaph, 'Here lies a man who was an honest Democrat his whole life long.'"

REGISTRATION.—The number of registered voters in this city last evening was nearly 1,800. About 2,200 are expected to register, judging from past registration. Business men, especially, seem unusually dilatory in registering this time, from some unexplained reason. In case Uncle Jimmy Fair should happen to skip into the field shortly, there would be a hundred or two registering within forty-eight hours, who will not take the trouble to do so now.—Enterprise.

The Carson Appeal says: It is whispered that there will be another effort to pass the Military Bill this Winter.

The Nevada State Journal has been enlarged. Powling is nothing if not enterprising.—Dayton News-Reporter.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength, and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

The Fair is over. You know that, though.

Gov. Adams took a run down to the Bay last night.

If you want to vote on the 2d of November, register.

The ladies wear some very pretty dresses to-night in "Flirtation."

Don't forget "Flirtation" at the Theater to-night. It is full of fun.

Miss Boyd has an excellent opportunity to display her ability to-night.

"Flirtation" is a play full of fun, sentiment and entertaining to a high degree.

Supt. S. L. Jones and Supt. Robt. Keating were passengers for the Bay last night.

Tickets to the Wabaska Fair and return will be sold at the Reno ticket office on the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, valid after the 16th inst., at $5.

Frank Poor came in from Coleman Valley yesterday, and Irwin Ayers came up from Oakland yesterday morning. These two gentlemen are among the heaviest taxpayers of Washoe, and are assessed at $33,650.

Twenty-three persons, all well-to-do citizens of Marshalltown, Ia., passed through Omaha Thursday night in a Pullman car for Los Angeles, where they propose to locate. Five cars of excursionists passed through Thursday en route from Chicago to San Francisco. They are from Illinois and Eastern Iowa.

The dance given by the Fearless Hose Company Friday was one of the largest and finest given here for years, and the boys deserve great credit for the way it was managed. The music by the Virginia Orchestra was grand, and everybody had a jolly good time. It was quite an addition to the Fair week attractions.

Cool weather is growing on apace and the mornings and evenings are made more comfortable by a fire. And here we desire to ring in a warning to our people to look to their stovepipes. It is now the most dangerous season of the year, when fires are lit in stoves that have not been used all summer. We cannot be too careful to stay off a visitation from the fire fiend.

POLITICAL HARMONY.—In Nye county the following named candidates for county officers are pretty sure to be elected without making a thorough political canvass: John Reynolds for District Attorney; W. S. Bryden for Recorder and Auditor; Charles McGregor for Assessor; O. P. Clark for Surveyor; James C. McMonigal for Public Administrator. So sure are we that these gentlemen will be elected that we stand ready to wager two to one on the result, as their names appear on both Republican and Democratic ticket. "Behold, how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

PROGRESS OF RAILROAD BUILDING.—The Railroad Gazette reports the construction of 235 miles of new railroad making a total of 3,074 miles thus far reported in 1886, against 1,696 miles at the corresponding date in 1885, 2,619 miles in 1884, 3,995 miles in 1883, 7,285 miles in 1882, 4,774 miles in 1881, 3,606 miles in 1879, 1,396 miles in 1877, 1,677 miles in 1876, 804 miles in 1875, 1,101 miles in 1874, 2,778 miles in 1873, and 4,970 miles in 1872. These figures include main track only, second or other additional tracks and sidings not being counted.

CATTLE AFFLICTED WITH BLINDNESS.—The Times Review is informed that Murphy's vaqueros last week, while on the way from Breaucourt to Halleck with a band of 400 beef steers for shipment, were obliged to drop 200 head at Hendricks creek and 70 further on, the animals being afflicted with blindness. In nearly every instance the right eye first became affected, the watery discharge scalding the hair from the skin surrounding, and frequently the eye itself runs entirely out. The disease then extends to the other eye, rendering the animal totally blind.

THE MINT TO BE OPENED.—The Carson Union says the orders received by Major Garrard from the Department require the opening of the Assay and Melting and Refining departments of the Carson U. S. Mint. A bullion fund is provided for that purpose so that the transactions can be conveniently carried on. So soon as bullion deposits are sufficiently large the coining department will also in all probability be started up.

HEY THERE!—Candidates should call at once at this office and order their political job work. Prices low and first-class work always guaranteed.

THE FAIR.

A Complete Success and Everybody Happy.

The State Fair is over, and with the exception of the imprecations hurled at the Weather Clerk for his conduct of the past two days, everybody is in the best of humor at the success of the Fair. Yesterday's programme was promptly carried out, and the running, trotting and pacing races proved very interesting. Some of the boys won and lost, and nearly $10,000 changed hands. The ¼ mile dash was won by Black Oak, the ½ mile by Lost Boy, the 1½ by Snuff Box, the first trot by Wells Fargo, the stallion trot by Doncaster, the California trot by Apex, and the pacing race by Shaker.

The sheep shearing match was won by Branton.

The premium list and awards will not be ready for publication for several days. The Society will probably be ahead a few dollars on the Fair.

NEVADA THEATER.—Nellie Boyd made her sixth appearance this week—last night, to a rousing house. Since Tuesday night the houses have increased each evening until now they are full. The company that Miss Boyd has supporting her is undoubtedly the best company we have had in Reno for a long time, all being selected with care and discretion by the management. Most of the pieces produced are of the sensational order, which seem to please the amusement-loving people much better than the quiet society plays of today.

Last night "The Streets of New York" was presented excellently, with all the sensational effects, which go a long way to make the play attractive. Miss Boyd as "Alida Bloodgood" was, as usual, the center of attraction. The part is not one that commands the sympathy of the audience, but Miss Boyd brought out all the good points there was in it, and succeeded in winning new laurels. The company were all good in their respective parts, several deserving special mention, which lack of space prevents us giving them. This evening (Sunday) the management have decided to accede to the request of a great many who were unable to be present during the week and present the society comedy "Flirtation." This is a new Eastern success full of comedy and one of the most entertaining plays of the week. A great many ladies have signified their desire to see this play and we anticipate a crowded house on this, the last appearance of Miss Boyd.

TOWN SEWERAGE AND WATER SUPPLY. All through the Eastern States neighboring cities are embroiled over methods of sewerage and water supply. A general practice has grown up of emptying the sewerage of towns into running streams which also furnish the water supply. While the towns were small little trouble was experienced, but with the growth of population and the increase in all kinds of manufacturing the streams became so polluted that every city demands protection from its neighbor higher up. The result is a very general inquiry as to means for escaping the evils resulting from such a system. In many places wells are being used for the water supply and divers plans for the disposal of sewerage are being tried. The discussions arising out of such a state of affairs have served to call the attention of the public to the dangers of bad sanitary conditions, and there is a general disposition to reform.

CATTLE VS. SHEEP.—There seems to be an irreconcilable antagonism existing between cattle and sheep men wherever they range their stock on the public lands. In this connection the Baker City (Or.) Tribune says: The controversy existing between the cattle and sheep men is getting interesting, and it is but a question of time when it will be either a fight or a foot-race between them. As an illustration of the good times coming—to lawyers—an organization of cattlemen in the Malheur region have notified the sheepmen to take their woolly stock off the public range, and the sheep owners claim as much right to occupy this wild land as have the cattlemen and decline to recognize the authority of the cattlemen; hence a bitterness of feeling between them has arisen that may culminate in something more than angry talk, and that right soon.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-24-17.

PARKER'S MAP OF NEVADA.

PARKER'S NEW MAP OF NEVADA.

THIS NEW AND BEAUTIFUL

MAP OF THE STATE.

Has Just Been Published, and is Now Ready for Sale.

It has been completed with great care in order to insure its being strictly correct, and furnishes a vast fund of valuable information regarding the topography of the State. There never has been a Map of the State prepared heretofore worthy of the name, and it is intended to fill a long-felt want on the part of citizens. It has been lithographed at large expense by the famous publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, and does great credit to their well-known skill in the art. The Map is drawn on a scale of 12 miles to the inch, and shows all surveyed Townships up to date of issue, also all Mountain Ranges, Valleys, Rivers, Creeks, Brooks, Streams and Lakes; it also shows the correct position of all Indian and Military Reservations, and all Cities, Towns and Settlements, also all Railroads and the principal Wagon Roads. The County Boundaries are also depicted with absolute correctness, which is something that no other Map has even approximated to.

The Map is printed on the best of paper, and mounted with stick, top and bottom, with tape on edges and varnished; it is also printed on thin, strong paper, which folds up in stout covers for pocket form. The Counties are printed with different colors, making it altogether an ornament to any school house, office, saloon or private room, as well as valuable for instruction and reference.

The Map has been compiled by John W. Parker, the Chief Draftsman of the United States Surveyor-General's Office at Reno, who holds the copyright, and is the condensation of all information on file in that office, as well as the celebrated War Department Maps prepared by Lieutenant Wheeler; he has also had at his command other recent and reliable data on which to rely, and the Map is issued to the public in the firm belief that it is in every way authentic.

The Price of the Map is $5.00.

And copies will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of the money. Parties ordering will be careful to state which style is desired—mounted or pocket form.

Reno, Nevada.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY PLAT-FORM.

The Republicans of Washoe county, in convention assembled, present the following declaration of principles and purposes, and pledge themselves and the nominees of this Convention to their faithful and earnest support and endorsement.

We denounce the attempt of the present administration to further restrict the coinage of silver and change the measure of standard values from gold and silver to gold alone, as an act of monstrous injustice to the mining interests of our country, and demand that a double standard be established of both gold and silver, and be maintained as the basis of our money system as established by the Constitution of the United States.

We, as a party, are most emphatically opposed to the further immigration of Chinese, believing them to be a class of laborers detrimental to American institutions, and we are in favor of the legal expulsion of those with which the country is now afflicted.

We denounce the "sham" policy of re-employment and reform as carried out by the present administration, and which has closed our Mint, cut down our mail routes, caused a cessation of public land surveys, and damaged the material interests of the State in such a manner, as to lead us to believe that the people of Nevada have been selected out for punishment because they had the courage to vote their convictions in the campaign of 1886.

We are in favor of a home man for United States Senator, and our representatives to the Senate and Assembly are instructed to use all honorable means to elect a gentleman from this office who is a Nevada in heart, interests, and actual residence. Instead of a man like Senator Fair, whose whole interest and residence are in California.

The present depressed condition of this State demands rigid economy in all public affairs, and we require of the nominees of this Convention, and particularly those for Legislative offices, earnest effort to reduce the expenses of both the State and County Government, and to relieve the people of the present burdensome and vexatious taxation.

Resolved, That gold and silver have been recognized as money from time immemorial, because each could be exchanged at the Mint of the civilized world for coin. Silver did not decline in market so long as the mints of the nation in Europe or America would receive it in exchange for money. We favor the immediate passage of an act of Congress providing for the free coinage of both gold and silver, so that the owner of either of these metals may have it exchanged at our mints in the standard rates for coin of gold or silver certificates as the case may be.

We endorse the earnest and able efforts of Senator Jones and Congressman Woodburn to prevent the Administration from depriving the people of this State of their usual and necessary mail facilities, and their efforts to keep open our mint and to furnish the people of this State with the usual benefits arising from a fair and impartial administration of public affairs, and we particularly commend them for their able efforts to rescue silver from its original place as money and to defeat the conspiracy of the bondholders to contract the world's money to the single gold standard and thereby double the obligations of contracts and inflict upon the laboring masses such enormous burdens as to reduce them to a condition of slavery.

Resolved, That we regret the failure of Senator Fair to co-operate with his colleagues from this State in their efforts to restore silver to par and thereby revive its currency in this State and defeat the bondholders' conspiracy to demoralize that metal. It is unfortunate that Senator Fair's private business was so pressing as to require his absence from his seat in the Senate at all times when any question affecting the use of money has been discussed or voted upon. We have been disappointed in the United States Senate. But whatever his private business or interest may have been, we cannot excuse his silence on the great issue with regard to silver, in which he was elected to vitally interested, and which he was elected to foster and protect. We charge him with utter disregard of his duty to his constituents in failing to place on the records of the Senate his opinions upon this question. In all charity to him we hope he is not a bondholder, and therefore interested in the demoralization of silver, and the destruction of silver mining in this State.

We favor the restoration of the Republican tariff on wool and the maintenance of the general features of the present protective tariff, and oppose free trade and the degradation of labor in this country which result from competition with Europe and China if the Democratic dogma of free trade should be adopted.

The Republican party has done more to relieve the oppressed than any other power ever did or can do, and it cannot look without sympathy and earnest effort upon the efforts being made to arrive at a humane and honorable solution of the questions that have lately been at issue between England and Ireland.

We denounce the action of the Democratic House in refusing all expressions of sympathy with the Home Rule movement of the Irish, and we urge all members of the Republican party to support such resolutions.

Resolved, That the Republican party has ever stood as the friend of all who would either oppress or enslave it; and every measure, either State or national, which will protect the laborer from dangerous foreign competition, or improve and dignify his condition, at home, will meet with our unqualified approval. Unswerving in our ability to Archism, Socialism and Communism, we favor such wise legislation as may ensure that harmony which ought always to prevail between the employer and the employe. We recognize the right of all men by negotiation to promote their mutual good and protection in every way that does not infringe upon the rights of others.
